SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 5.

"IMMIGRANTS who are willing to live and prosper under our laws should and always will be welcome," says the Philadelphia Telegraph (Rep.), "but those who propose that we shall live under their lawlessness should be kept out as epidemics are, because they are more dangerous than epidemics to society and government."

The members of the bar at Albuquerque, Santa Fe and elsewhere have formulated sets of resolutions commendatory of Delegate Joseph's bill and are forwarding them to members of congress, urging the passage of the bill. Las Vegas ought not to be behind in this matter, and should at once see to it that her testimony is also added to that of other leading cities of the territory in support of the measure which will be of so much benefit to the settlement of her private land claims.

This democracy of New Mexico need delude themselves no longer that any internal differences among the republicans are to prove a source of weakness and enable the opposition to walk away with the election. The cementing process undergone at the Albuquerque meeting was no doubt effective. The leaders now understand the value of unity, and on that plan will leave nothing undone to secure a routing victory. The hot contest for votes by both parties will be had in San Miguel county. The republican convention will be called to meet here and the special and hard work of the republicans will be put in in this county. If the party here have any anxiety over the coming condition of affairs, someone must roll up his sleeves and pitch into work. There should be a complete organization of the democratic voters of this county, and at once. Work will have to be done this year, and the sooner this fact is recognized and acted upon, the better will be the results attained for the party. Let every democrat remember that the republicans of New Mexico will make a tremendous effort to carry the day.
